

Comment on triggering of Article 50 by the UK

Following the announcement that the United Kingdom has triggered Article 50 to begin the process of leaving the European Union, Michaela Koller, director general of Insurance Europe, commented:

“The triggering of Article 50 marks the beginning of a complicated process that could have a significant impact on the future prosperity of both Europe and the UK. Therefore, it is important that the upcoming negotiations focus on delivering a result that benefits citizens and businesses on both sides.”

3. Insurance Europe is the European insurance and reinsurance federation. Through its 35 member bodies — the national insurance associations — Insurance Europe represents all types of insurance and reinsurance undertakings, eg pan-European companies, monoliners, mutuals and SMEs. Insurance Europe, which is based in Brussels, represents undertakings that account for around 95% of total European premium income. Insurance makes a major contribution to Europe’s economic growth and development. European insurers generate premium income of more than €1 200bn, employ almost one million people and invest almost €9 800bn in the economy.
